Google Analytics

This website is using Google Analytics, an advertising analysis service by Google Inc. („Google“) Google Analytics uses JavaScript code and first-party cookies to collect information about visitors and to track our advertising campaign data. Google Analytics anonymously tracks how visitors interact with a website, including where they came from, what they did on a site, and whether they completed any of the site's conversion goals. This Information (including your IP address) is passed to a Google server in the US and stored there. If necessary, or legally required, Google will transfer this information to third parties in as far as these third parties are processing data on behalf of Google. Google will definitely not connect your IP address with other Google Inc. data. You can adjust your browser software to prevent the installation of cookies. Please be advised, however, that this might prevent you from using the website to its full extent.
